The Maine State Society for the Protection of Animals provides shelter, rehabilitative care, and adoption services for formerly abused and neglected horses like Noel.

Noel Upon Arrival ↓ After Rehabilitation →

Hay, grain, daily care, and love have made all the difference for Noel since she came to the Windham shelter. Learn about all of the horses and the work that happens at MSSPA by visiting the website or, when it is possible, visiting the farm.

Did you know that, when in-person visiting is again safe, you can meet the rescued horses at the Windham shelter?

Check the website to learn when visitors will again be welcomed at the farm.

While you are at the website, you'll find many other ways to join the MSSPA herd: learn about volunteering, see horses available for adoption, or sign up for our email list. Your support helps formerly abused and neglected horses live the lives they deserve.
